IB Learner Profile of the Month - Risk-Taker/Courageous

To be a Risk - Taker, try new things like sports, food, and other things, explore new ideas, also to explore a new genre! For example, to be a risk-taker in school try something new like maybe if in you always play on the swings maybe you should play on the basketball court.

It's important to be a Risk -Takers/courageous so that you can learn things I can try new things and see them from different perspectives.
